Indiana State Day 1970 is to be special—special for Centennial and for the many visitors it will bring, out-of-state and in-state.

One in-state visitor who always finds State Day special is Clara Lancaster Krull, Gamma, Butler. At the 1969 State Day, Clara revealed that she has attended 62 out of the 63 Indiana State Days held so far. Clara is a resident of Indianapolis.

◆ We won't even open this up as a contest to see if anyone can equal Clara's record. We feel pretty sure no one can!—EDITOR.

Stand Firm

Something has got to be done and done quickly about the student revolution. If people think that "nice" students at "nice" colleges are not involved, they are crazy. I am only 30, so not so far removed from these college students as some, but I know that their thinking is all wrong. They do not have the judgment to decide what they should learn and who is to teach them. Freedom! They shout about it, and yet they cannot comprehend the awesome responsibility that total freedom means.

Youth has always thought it knows what is best. This point of view is not something that the present students invented! When I was in college our existential philosophy made the "beatnik" generation. The existentialist knows that "freedom" liberates a person's choices. The freedom of the present students means eliminating choices.

As an alumna, I feel the Theta Magazine must stand firm in presenting the views of the "establishment" and in advocating a strong policy of punishment against the lawlessness many universities are overlooking.

Theta Families

In the Washington, D.C. Alumnæ Chapter letter in the Winter 1968-69 Magazine you listed correctly eight of my Theta relatives. But I am proud to say there are two more to be added: my aunt, Lennie Elizabeth Shackleton Yeo, Beta, Indiana, and her daughter Phoebe Yeo Barta, Alpha, DePauw.

ALICE SHACKLETON SNYDER
Tau, Northwestern
Arlington, Va.

I am so happy and proud that each of our four daughters has pledged and been initiated into Theta—and each of us at a different chapter. We all attended the initiation of Linda, now a sophomore at Beta Delta, University of Arizona.

Sue, now Mrs. Jack K. Krutsinger, was the first daughter to join Theta at Beta Gamma, Colorado State. Nancy, now Mrs. James R. Campbell, is a Theta from Beta Iota, Colorado. Jane was initiated at Gamma Rho, California-Santa Barbara, but transferred to Colorado and affiliated at Beta Iota.

Next, On the Moon?

The Thetas have been active in Stuttgart, Germany, recently. Many of us are in the Hospital Officers' Wives Club. I was 1968-69 president. Through this organization we have been trying to establish a speech therapy program at the Army Hospital to benefit pre-school age children.

As Thetas, those of us in the Wives' Club are particularly fascinated with this. We feel that we are carrying the Theta tradition abroad!

Theta friendship has been a wonderful steady thing for so many of our women in this restless world. It has been a satisfaction to see young women find friends in new communities through Theta.

In this period of violence and campus rebellion, it is easy to overlook quiet and responsible change initiated by creative students. Named top senior woman at Arizona State University, Theta Pam Pool was honored not so much for her impressive accumulation of activities as for the quality of her service and her personal integrity. A focal point of Pam's philosophy is her feeling of responsibility for her fellow man and the society in which she lives. Indeed, with a student such as Pam supplying campus leadership in an age of change, it seems that the university is still reflecting values it has long revered and attempted to transmit.

Amid all the mixed up ideas of our time—anti-culture, anti-religion, anti-democracy and all the rest of the far-out stuff that has led us into only more treacherous and dimly lighted areas—I take my stand for a fraternity which will dare to be "the way." By that I mean a way of decency, manners, character, dedication.

THE COVER: Like Kappa Alpha Theta, the Hotel Del Coronado was born in the late nineteenth century and like Theta, it has survived through the years, not by mellowing and depending on the "olden days" for its fame, but by keeping up with the times. Today, much refurbished, the hotel is a "splendiferous" establishment, most worthy to be the setting of Theta's "splendiferous" Centennial Convention, June 13-19, 1970. Happily, this is a return engagement for Thetas, many of whom will remember the pleasant and wonderful convention at Coronado just ten years ago in 1960. Built around a palm shaded courtyard, the hotel is anchored by its famous boathouse, shown with flag flying, at the right of picture.

Quotation For Autumn

"A good chapter attitude is a year-round necessity; you cannot achieve it overnight." —
A pertinent statement from Theta's Second Leadership Conference. Turn to page 7.

YOUR EDITOR HAS A NOTION that Leadership Conference is like a Grand Convention—no matter how graphically we try to write it up in the Theta Magazine, it has to be participated in to be appreciated. We wish we could have had room to print more that was said, but add here a phrase or two, such as this terse definition of efficiency for Theta chapters: "K + P × C = O: Knowledge plus Planning times Cooperation equals Organization." Collegiate Sue Anne Starnes, Alpha, De-Pauw, who made the Toast To the Past at the banquet closed with these words: "Although the times change and the girls change, our history is still there, presenting us with a strong, but elegant heritage—one too precious to forget."

We'd say an installation is high up on the scale inspiration-wise, too, and most of us never have a chance to participate here either. As we welcome South Florida as our Delta Rho chapter, some of the little extra stories about the installation not covered in the write-up on pages 4-6 bear mention. A Theta, Anna K. May Anderson, of Alpha Omega, Pittsburgh, was acclaimed as "Delta Rho's source of strength during pledgeship," and had the special joy of seeing her daughter Linda, not only initiated as a charter member of South Florida, but installed as the first president of the group. As if this were not reward enough for Mrs. Anderson's inspiration and effort, the grateful chapter surprised her with a gold charm which reads "Theta Mother" on one side and "With Theta Love From Delta Rho" on the other.

By her own admission, the Alpha Delta Pi member, Miss Cozbie Reed, campus adviser for the local Tri Chi which became Theta, felt "half Theta" by the time she came to the end of her job. It was therefore fitting that the charm presented to her by Grand President Norma Jorgensen contained both ADPi and Theta insignia.

If we sound at this point as though we have titillating, interesting copy going over our desk that we cannot share with you this is regretfully the case. Particularly is this true in this our Centennial Year when our Summer Issue was so foreshortened (24 pages instead of the usual 80) and we are leaving out chapter letters of all sorts during the 1969-70 volume. Rest assured, most other copy submitted will see the light of day in print presently, but we have to budget our space. Those of you who have sent stories about interesting, newsworthy Thetas, please have patience; we hope to be able to print many of these in the Spring Issue.

In the meantime, our upcoming Winter 1969-70 Issue will be Centennial from start to finish. It's great fun and exciting to work on it. Watch for it!

We have a new book reviewer to add to those talented Thetas who are helping us in this department. She is Lucy Hutchison Vosmek, Beta Eta, Pennsylvania, who works in the publicity department of a New York publisher. We also have another traveling secretary whose picture was not at hand to use in the magazine. She is Eileen Harrison, Gamma Theta, Carnegie-Mellon.

And because the Desktop page was also foreshortened in the Summer Issue, we did not have a chance to thank all of you chapter editors and the others, our "spontaneous contributors," who kept copy coming so wonderfully for the 1968-69 volume. Maybe we've told you before, but when we took this job the amount of mail horrified and scared us. Today we love the mail and count the day lost when our box is not full. However, due to Centennial there are no current assignments. Just don't forget us! The regular schedule will return 1970-71.

◆ Realization that the fraternity's strength depends upon wise selection of new members brings better understanding of the deep interest rush holds for both alumnae and collegiate members. Those who feel pride in their fraternity seek future members who will maintain values which justify pride, who are receptive to Theta standards and goals and who will be loyal lifetime members.

The choice of membership belongs to the rushee as well as to the fraternity. What are COLLEGE CHAPTERS offering to rushees in whose hands they will place the future of Kappa Alpha Theta?

- ◆ Close friendship? Be assured that rushees can sense this quality if it is present.
- ◆ Motivation toward the student's goal of acquiring higher education? Research shows that if a chapter's scholarship improves sharply the preceding year, the following rush period brings greater success.
- ◆ Leadership? Chapter and individual performance in campus and Theta activity is a tangible sign of this strength.
- ◆ Social and cultural advantages? Evidence of gracious living within the chapter will offer this promise.

A chapter cannot become overnight what it has failed to become all year. A unified, efficient chapter with an enthusiastic spirit will more easily interest prospective members.

What values are ALUMNAE projecting that influence rushees?

- ◆ Continuing friendship? An alumnae organization should exemplify the reality of this aim.
- ◆ Leadership in worthwhile endeavors which are of real value to the community? Thus may Theta's concern for others be demonstrated.
- ◆ Cultured womanhood? Respect for her mother's Theta friends often influences a rushee's decision.

Are collegiate and alumnae members able to articulate the benefits of fraternity membership—to exemplify them? A frequent self-evaluation is helpful; when the positive side predominates, we will be better saleswomen!

Director of Membership Selection

FOURTH CHAPTER in FLORIDA

The flowers were black and gold. Phi Delta Theta on the South Florida campus surprised Theta's newest chapter with a gift (above) with John Lund doing the honors for Phi Delt and Dorothy Whitehurst Heard, installation chairman, accepting for Theta. The installation of Delta Rho was memorable in other ways, too, as related by Alleyne Monroe Stephens, Beta Nu, Florida State, in the accompanying story. Mrs. Stephens will continue to serve Delta Rho as their permanent alumnae secretary.

The state of Florida is famous for its A B C's—Alligators, Beaches, Climate—plus orange juice. Now it can add its four Kappa Alpha Theta chapters.

The local Tri Chi sorority at the University of South Florida, Tampa, became Delta Rho colony of Kappa Alpha Theta on March 30, 1969—our 95th chapter. The formal pledging was presided over by Dorothy Whitehurst Heard, Grand Council member-at-large, and Virginia Wiggins Childs, college president, District XVIII. Theta alumnae members from Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Largo and Tampa assisted. Gale Hays became the colonizer. The colony has placed first in scholarship the past three quarters.

The University of South Florida was founded in 1956. Though the first classes were not held until 1960, the enrollment has already reached 14,000. The University's only tradition is innovation. Seven other national sororities and 13 national fraternities have installed chapters. The 1700 acre campus with its physical plant of 34 fully air-conditioned buildings is valued at more than $45 million.

Though vacation had started, 68 loyal Delta Rhos stayed in Tampa, eager to fly the Theta kite. Tuesday evening, June 17, the Loyalty Service was held in the President's Dining Room, with a social afterwards to meet the national installing officers: Norma Anderson Jorgensen, grand president; Dorothy Schulze Vaaler, executive secretary-treasurer; Lucile Moore Garrett, Dorothy Whitehurst Heard, Martha Smith White, members-at-large on Grand Council; Virginia Wiggins Childs, Ruth Robie Lacy, district presidents, college and alumnae respectively; Gale Hays, colonizer; Cay Womack, song leader; Elizabeth Talley, new resident counselor; Rosemary Nilson, Central Office.

Theta collegiates from the Universities of Florida, Georgia and Tennessee; Florida State, Emory, Duke and Louisiana State Universities, along with area Theta alumnae, helped with the initiation.

The big night—June 19—finally arrived. The formal banquet was held at the Carrollwood Golf and Tennis Club attended by 150 Thetas and guests, all singing the praises of Theta (literally) under the leadership of song leader, Cay Womack. Grand Council installation chairman, Dorothy Heard, was toastmistress and lighted the candles in honor of the four founders. College District President Virginia Childs gave the Theta welcome followed by the response from Linda Anderson, Delta Rho president. Alumnæ District President Ruth Lacy talked on Theta service. Many Thetagrams were read by Colonizer Gale Hays.

Honored guests were Dr. John S. Allen, president of the University of South Florida, and Mrs. Allen, who brought greetings; Dr. Herbert J. Wunderlich, dean of student affairs, and Mrs. Wunderlich. Assistant Dean of Women Linda Ericson delivered the address. Other honored guests were Mrs. Phyllis P. Marshall, director of student organizations, and Miss Cozbie Reed, Alpha Delta Pi and past Tri Chi adviser, who was presented a gift by Grand President Jorgensen for her work with the local group.

The charter service was then held in the Red Room of the Carrollwood Golf Club. The week's festivities came to a close with the model chapter meeting, held in the University Center.

SECOND LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

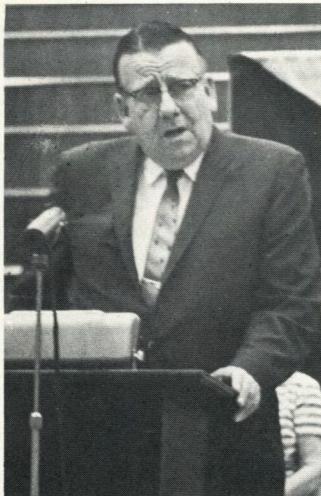

June 12-16, 1969

University of Oklahoma

Quotable Quote

On VALUES:

Freedom is not the right to do what one wants, but the opportunity to become what one should.

Dr. John Hunter, president, Louisiana State University, spoke to conference on idea "Leadership Builds Success."

Virginia Vance, Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma, was the conference song leader.

Grand President Norma Jorgensen said, to Thetas: "Aim high, hope and work."

Headliner at the conference banquet was Dr. Dorothy Adine Truex, dean of women at the University of Oklahoma.

Speaking for collegiates at banquet was Sue Anne Starnes, Alpha, DePauw.

On CAMPUS RELATIONSHIPS:

Character is what you are; reputation is what you do.

HOW IT WAS

◆ Early this June, college chapter presidents, Advisory Board members, district and national officers of Kappa Alpha Theta met in Norman, Oklahoma, for Theta's second Leadership Conference.

It was a work session, packed with stimulating ideas, plans, suggestions, programs for making 1969-70 (our Centennial Year) the fraternity's most meaningful.

Grand President Norma Jorgensen set the pace for the coming year when she told the gathering of 250 members, quoting architect Daniel Burnham: "Make no little plans—they have no magic to stir men's blood and probably themselves will not be realized. Make big plans—aim high and hope and work."

Earlier in the conference, Dr. John Hunter, president of Louisiana State University, spoke on "Leadership Builds Success."

During the four-day meetings, leadership was analyzed from many angles . . . chapter organization, unity, support, understanding, values, pride, strength. Officers planned programs to point up avenues for excellence through mastery of these qualities.

The conference was a time for table talks . . . and informal talks . . . for getting acquainted. Discussions included: exciting new opportunities for extension; plans for a total, nation-wide observance of the fraternity's 100th birthday; programs for better scholarship. Theta's membership selection practices were emphasized. And there was time to discuss current campus trends, how to meet changing college conditions, how to keep Theta in the lead.—CAROLYN MCKENZIE CARTER, Chairman of Press Relations.

On SCHOLARSHIP:

On LEADERSHIP:

What you are speaks so loudly I cannot hear what you say.

Did you notice the open gate in this picture? Perhaps it could be used as a symbol, swinging free, so that Theta's Grand Officers need not stay at the front, nor the collegiates at the back, but can mingle freely, working together for Theta. Pic shows Leadership Conference set-up with Theta flag in the background. BELOW LEFT: Alumnae swore that meetings in a room called "Twin Star" helped them get more work done. CENTENNIAL THETA DAY

Spring 1970

RESOLVED:

1. That we launch our second hundred years by sharing.
2. That all college and alumnae chapters, all alumnae clubs and every Theta everywhere give something to beautify the community.

Many of the groups already have plans. What will you do? Ideas are suggested in the drawing on the opposite page. This need not be a large project; plant a tree, a bed of flowers or give a book, but make it something that will last and make some spot more beautiful in memory of our Centennial. We know Thetas will have unusual and interesting ideas.

Your gift may be made in connection with a college chapter Kite Day or a spring alumnae chapter or club program or benefit. We want your ideas!

The centennial chairman of each group will be in charge of this activity. For an individual Theta, the chairman is YOU!

All these events will be recorded in a scrapbook to be on display at our Centennial Convention.

Please report your plans by February 1, 1970 and send your newspaper clipping of the event by May 25, 1970 to

Mrs. Edwin Loop
2480 Seaview Drive
Port Townsend, Wash. 98368

YES,
JOY IS A HIGH KITE
JOY IS BEING A THETA!

JOY IS A HIGH KITE

Let's share our joy on our 100th birthday

Let's plan a gift to our community

Landscape a corner

Plant a tree

Give a book to the library

OR what do you suggest?

Let's do it by May 1970!

Every Theta college chapter

Every Theta alumnae chapter

Every Theta alumnae club

Every Theta, wherever you are . . .

Why not beautify a

playground . . . railroad station . . .

OR . . .

Let's start our second hundred years with a rededication to all that Theta stands for

YES,
JOY IS A HIGH KITE
JOY IS BEING A THETA!

NEWS from LINK

For DePauw University—1970 a Theta Memorial Garden

The charming idea for such a gift originated with the current college members of Kappa Alpha Theta who were searching for a special way they could contribute in recognition of the four college women who, in 1870, founded Kappa Alpha Theta.

Through LINK, this special project is under way. Many of the college Thetas are joining the Foundation as Junior members and others are contributing as they can. Each college Theta who contributes to this Founders Memorial Garden will record her name in a special book to be presented to DePauw.

This "contemplation garden" will be a part of the landscaping plan for the projected Performing Arts Center at DePauw University. It will be a charming retreat with lovely evergreens sheltering benches of Indiana limestone and perhaps a fountain or a sundial. The exact plans for the garden will be determined by the amount of money contributed. But it is certainly a most appropriate way to express the continuity of Theta—100 years after its founding at Indiana Asbury University (now DePauw University).

In recognition of her contribution, every college Theta will sign her name on her chapter's page, and all 95 pages will be bound together in a special book to be presented to President Kerstetter on the occasion of the Centennial Reception at the DePauw Union on January 24, 1970.

Every Theta in Cincinnati Knows About LINK

Cincinnati is one place "where the action was" in the 1968-69 campaign for members in LINK. And to prove it, there are 87 new members in the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation and one fifth year renewal—88 members gave $1389.

All this action was a result of a well-coordinated drive under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Griffith with 44 area chairmen to assist her. They made use of the Pansy May Basket plan which has been successful in other Theta campaigns for LINK. The May Basket is really a manilla envelope decorated with a cutout basket of pansies containing names of 6-10 Thetas who are prospective members of LINK. Inside, there are Foundation information sheets and blank membership cards. The area chairmen keep the basket moving from one person on the list to the next until everyone has been notified. In Cincinnati, 66% of those contacted responded. Cheers for Cincinnati!

Do You Need a Scholarship?

Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation announces Scholarships to be awarded at 1970 Centennial Convention in June

New Undergraduate Scholarships —

Founders Memorial Scholarships for undergraduate Thetas to be awarded for the first time in 1970. These scholarships will be named for each of Theta's Founders; Bettie Locke Hamilton, Alice Allen Brant, Bettie Tipton Lindsey and Hannah Fitch Shaw. The initial awarding will honor Theta's 100th birthday. Information on the procedure for candidates will be forwarded to each college chapter.

Graduate Scholarships — $600

Theta seniors and college graduates are invited to apply for these scholarships for graduate study.

Fellowship of $3000

For study toward a doctorate is offered through the office of the Dean of Women on campuses where there are Theta chapters. This fellowship is open to any worthy and deserving woman student working toward her doctorate in her chosen field.

If you are interested — write for application forms to: Foundation Chairman, Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation, 1580 Sherman Avenue, Evanston, Illinois 60201. These applications must be completed and returned not later than March 1, 1970.

◆ The Kappa Theta Foundation through its Scholarship Committee is proud to announce the $600 Loan and Fellowship Graduate Scholarships for 1969-70. Members of the Foundation Scholarship Committee are Lois Lusk Hundley, Beta Tau, Denison; Charlotte Hale Darling, Eta, Michigan; Eleanor Russell Thorsen, Delta, Illinois; Helen Anderson Carter, Alpha Gamma, Ohio State; Barbara Fisher Harder, Alpha Chi, Purdue, chairman.

MARY SUSAN BASOLO, Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma. Presently an award winner and is finishing her first year of medical school at Washington University, St. Louis, after graduating from the University of Oklahoma in three years. ". . . ranked 24th from the top in a class of 95. In view of the fact that this comparison is made among a highly select group of scholars, her standing is evidence of superior performance," reports one of her professors.

CATHERINE M. CARO, Alpha Omega, Pittsburgh. Cathy received her B.A. in April 1969 in anthropology. She will study toward her Master of Arts in teaching and hopes to be an elementary teacher in the inner city.

PAULETTE THOMPSON CROWLEY, Beta Theta, Idaho. Polly received her B.S. in June 1969 in home economics and extension. At the University of Idaho she was a member of Mortar Board and Phi Kappa Phi and was on the Dean's List for eight semesters. She is working toward a master's degree in home economics textiles and clothing at the University of Minnesota where she also received a one-half time teaching assistantship. Polly is the daughter of Theta's Grand V.P. for Alumnae, JoAnn Crites Thompson.

BARRIE LYNN DINKINS, Gamma Theta, Carnegie-Mellon. Barrie graduated in 1968, was a member of Mortar Board and president of Omicron Nu. During 1968-69 she attended Cornell University and she hopes to get her master's in home ec with a minor in marketing in 1970. She chose Cornell because the late Carol Kurtz of Gamma Theta (another scholarship winner who died tragically in a 1967 Cornell fire) was her Theta Big Sister and she wanted to follow her example.

LINDA JO FAULKNER, Delta Nu, Arkansas. Linda graduated with a B.A. in June 1969 with a major in economics. She was president of Alpha Lambda Delta and of AWS, was a member of Mortar Board and in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. As a tour leader of an exchange group attending Kansai University of Foreign Studies in Japan she has become interested in Japanese economic problems and cultural life. Currently she is working toward a Ph. D. degree in economics at the University of Wisconsin.

ANNE CAROL MEIER, Beta, Indiana. Anne graduated from the University of Indiana in 1967 with high distinction, received her M. S. in education in 1968 at the same university. She is a Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, was on the Dean's List and was an Elvis J. Stahr Award winner. She is working toward a M. B. A. in marketing at Ohio State University.

SHARON STALCUP MENDLICK, Kappa, Kansas. Sharon graduated with a B. S. in 1966 at Kansas, has been teaching for three years plus going to graduate school part time. She is studying to obtain her master's degree in special education of the emotionally disturbed adolescent at the University of Kansas.

REBECCA SUE SICKLER, Gamma Sigma, Southern Methodist. Becky received her B. S. in August 1969 and is now a graduate student working toward a teaching credential for the state of California at San Diego State College. She has been house manager, rush chairman and president of her Theta chapter.

The Kansas City Alumnae Chapter awarded a $400 scholarship in January 1969 to CAROL DUFFY WADDELL, Alpha Upsilon, Washburn. Carol will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Washburn in 1970. She has been serving as president of the Washburn Panhellenic Council. This is the first time Kansas City alumnae have made this award, which they presented to Carol at their Founders' Day celebration.

An Answer To

A NAGGING QUESTION

No longer are parents of communicatively handicapped children frustrated by the nagging question, "Maybe if we had taken Johnny to just one more specialist?" "With the help of a pilot project undertaken in the spring of 1968 at the Institute of Logopedics at Wichita, Kansas, an in-depth evaluation of each child is possible with a team approach and under one roof. Parents have their essential questions about Johnny's condition answered in one three-day period and have the satisfaction of knowing that the child (or adult) has been seen by professional experts in the areas of speech, language, plus physical rehabilitation.

The examining team is composed of a logopedist, neurologist, pediatrician, orthopedist, audiologist, psychologist, educator and a medical social worker. Other specialties such as psychiatry, otolaryngology and ophthalmology are available when deemed necessary. The work of the project has been funded by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and is known as The Evaluation Center for Neurological and Communicative Disorders. But despite all the big words, the kindly touch of individuals who care deeply for people is always at hand. These individuals on the Institute staff also make available the routine basic examination of speech, hearing and psychometric testing as used in the past.

To be accepted by the Unit, a referral by local physician or pediatrician is required. During its first year, some 307 such children and adults from 26 states and two foreign countries received diagnosis and recommendations for placement and/or habilitation from the Unit.

What do the recommendations consist of? There are normally four alternatives: 1) Referral to agency or training facilities in the local community 2) A complete home program designed for an individual child, complete with specific instructions for specific behavior 3) An extended clinical-therapeutic evaluation on the Institute's rehabilitative program of from three weeks to four months 4) Admission to the Institute's rehabilitative program immediately.

Thus, Theta, in supporting the Institute of Logopedics, has a part in this latest step in treatment for the neurologically and communicatively handicapped.—WILLA MAE WRIGHT.

Twenty years of work with the handicapped has made Charles P. Overstake a past master at gaining children's confidence.

Gamma Omicron—N. Mexico

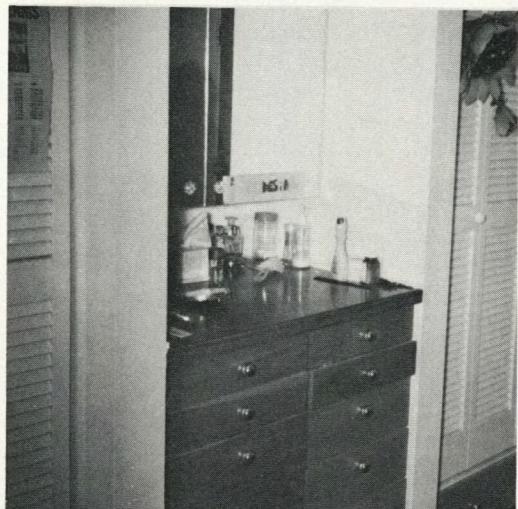

Gamma Omicron, University of New Mexico, has just finished a building program. Property behind the existing house was purchased. The entire project has occupied about a year. Living capacity was increased from 34 to 50.

The three-story bedroom wing is built around an enclosed patio. Bedrooms have built-in dressers, closets, study tables. The president's second floor bedroom has space for extra storage units and file cabinets. Lounges are on both bedroom floors connecting to a small lounge in the old bedroom wing. The bathrooms have washers and dryers.

The old chapter room in the front of the house was demolished and a lovely living room was built. The new chapter room is on the bottom floor, thus cut off from every day traffic. The dining room has been extended into the old living room. Guest room with its own bathroom is on the first floor. The living room in the housemother's suite was made larger.

New storage space, new tile floor and refrigeration in the kitchen plus underground parking on the chapter room level, which provides 15 parking spaces, round out the project.

Lynn Davis Boyd and Mary Burnell Hurley worked closely with chairman Emily Taulman Foor. Members of the decorating committee were Joan Donahue Cantrell, Sue Moreland Hughes, Alice Melgard White. Nancy Mayland Cole has charge of donations.—EMILY TAULMAN FOOR.

All the comforts of home—and more—in the closets and built-in dressers in the new bedrooms in New Mexico addition.

◆ Kappa Alpha Theta will celebrate its 100th birthday in historic San Diego which is observing its 200th anniversary. The city was founded in 1769 by Father Junipero Serra, the Franciscan saint who came up from Mexico to found the 21 missions that paved the way for European settlement of California. However, the city was still a small adobe settlement as late as the 1860's. It was not until World War II when it became one of our largest naval bases that the attractions of San Diego as a resort city were discovered by servicemen.

With San Diego's great surge has come many new tourist developments: Mission Bay, a 4,000 acre resort area; Sea World, an oceanarium with dolphins, porpoises, penguins and a killer whale included among its attractions; Shelter Island featuring an extensive yacht basin and exotic restaurants. All paths in Balboa Park lead to San Diego's magnificent zoo, the largest in the world. Because of the city's mild climate, animals are displayed out of doors in natural habitat settings the year round.

Of all San Diego tours the harbor excursion is a must. The cruise passes the Star of India, oldest iron hulled bark afloat, the tuna fleet, Ryan Aviation where Lindbergh's plane, "Spirit of St. Louis," was built, navy and marine corps training centers, nuclear submarine docks and the famous mothball fleet of 175 ships.

San Diego's most popular attraction lies 16 miles south across the Mexican border at Tijuana, the border town with duty free shopping, bull fights, jai alai and horseracing.

For those who have time for longer excursions, one may drive through Cleveland National Forest to Mount Palomar, location of the world's largest telescope. You may also visit the Pala Mission, which is still operating, and Mission San Luis Rey, largest and richest of all 21 California missions. Ninety miles to the north of San Diego County is Disneyland.

Minutes away across San Diego Bay from the city is Coronado Island, home of the famed Hotel Del Coronado. This historic Victorian resort was opened in 1888. The original bedrooms were equipped with wall safes and cherry mantled fireplaces—but very few bathrooms! Prominent people who have stayed there include President Harrison and the Prince of Wales (later Duke of Windsor). It is said that here the Prince met the former Wally Simpson for the first time. Through the years millions of dollars have been spent in modernization; now every room has been remodeled with care to maintain the Victorian flavor. In 1964 the hotel was designated a California historical site.

As youthful and vigorous San Diego celebrates its bicentennial, what better place for Theta to observe its 100th birthday!

CONVENTION COMMITTEE

the strong “plus” side of sorority life

by Marjorie W. Kirby

◆ One of the most meaningful and worthwhile experiences of my life has been my position as pledge trainer at Theta's Delta Mu chapter at the University of Rhode Island. While acquainting the pledges with the positive values of sorority life, I, myself, was able to re-examine the sorority concept and emerged from that examination with renewed certainty that sororities are relevant and valuable to college women all over the U. S. and Canada.

An important area in which fraternity life can contribute to the individual's welfare is in the area of personal development. From her first experience with sororities as a rushee, a freshman girl is called upon to enlarge her existing capabilities. During rush she is given the opportunity to exercise her ability to make friends and engage in interesting conversation. This ability is further developed as she participates in rush later as a sister.

Sororities also serve as incentives for the development of new capabilities. For example, the work, judgment and planning of many are required to run an efficient chapter. This enables a portion of the responsibility to be entrusted to each member, whether it involves being president, taking charge of one rush party or baking cookies for a social.

Sororities, then, are concerned with involvement of people and also with involvement with people. They reach outside of themselves to the campus and the world and they reach deep within themselves to each individual member. Perhaps an accurate term to apply to a sorority would be—"a four-year experiment in personal development or in group relations." Participation is an important factor in today's world.

All those in a sorority have an opportunity to participate; leaders can lead, artists can create, singers can sing—each can give her individual talent to enrich the group as a whole. In fact, each is encouraged to do so. Before the sorority as an institution can be dissolved, it must be replaced by something else which can effectively fulfill these needs.

Many sorority activities which are scorned by independents such as rushing, pledging or house projects, serve useful functions. They help increase each member's individual capacities for making and sustaining friendships, living and working with others, leadership, creativity and a commitment to something outside and larger than oneself.

This year in honor of Kappa Alpha Theta's Centennial, our chapters across the country are engaging in fund raising projects for a variety of worthwhile causes. Delta Mu chapter's sale of block prints enabled us to donate money to the University Library Fund. Of course, Theta's national philanthropic projects which include the Institute of Logopedics, the DePauw Library Fund, Foster Parents Plan and the scholarship and fellowship program, are also monuments to her ideal of love.

Delta Mu's pledge class wrote letters this year to servicemen in Vietnam. At a meeting of pledge trainers from all of the 10 sororities on campus, I learned that we were not unique, that the majority of them also had similar philanthropic pledge class projects.

When the ideas of helping others, working together and serving the campus and community become outdated, then, and only then, will sororities die. Sororities offer opportunities for involvement and participation, which are as modern as Marshall McLuhan, who said that the trend in modern life, as a result of our new electric age, is toward total participation.

Straight "A" Students

Silver scholarship charms were awarded by the fraternity to the Thetas whose names are starred who made a straight "A" record for the entire 1967-68 school year. Others listed made straight "A" for a semester or two consecutive terms. Congratulations to these scholastic stars in Theta's galaxy.—JEANNE GULLETT.

Of the 72 chapters reporting, 68% were above the all-sorority average; 41 were improved over 1966-67.

Mrs. John A. McCelvey
Nominating Committee Chairman

Nominations—Opal Marshall McCelvey, Alpha Theta, Texas, a recently retired grand vice-president of Theta with a long history of Theta activity, has been appointed chairman of Theta's nominating committee for 1970.

All Theta collegiate chapters, which built or remodeled chapter houses during 1964-68, will recall Opal as a talented and helpful chairman of housing, a post she held along with her duties as director of Theta's finance program. A former resident of both Dallas and Ft. Worth, she has been president of the alumnae chapter in each, was District XII president from 1955-60. She served as a member-at-large on Grand Council, 1960-64.

Nominees for Grand Council must be college graduates. Individual Thetas, as well as college and alumnae chapters or clubs, may recommend. Recommendations should be submitted if possible by May 1, 1970, Send to: Mrs. John A. McCelvey, 1001 N. 5th St., Temple, Tex. 76501

We Welcome

These Alumnae Clubs—

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.—Pres., Mrs. Ray J. Moore

LONDON, ENGLAND—Pres., Mrs. H. C. McCleary

PRINCETON, N.J.—Pres., Mrs. John Valentine

SARASOTA, FLA.—Pres., Mrs. Harrison B. Wilson

New, But Not New

Cay Womack, the oh-so-successful song leader at Theta's Convention, Mackinac, 1968, is now a special officer of the fraternity. She has been appointed Fraternity Music Chairman.

Friendship Fund

Our Centennial Founders' Day 1970 will be a never-to-be-forgotten experience for most of us. But what of those Theta sisters, unable to attend because of illness, age or who are in troubled times? These are the ones who will be helped by our birthday pennies, given in love for those we love.

Memorial Gifts

In Memory of _____

Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation

has received a gift from _____

Your desire to honor the memory of a loved one can find no more lasting means than one which offers hope and encouragement to the young—the gifted, the needy and the handicapped. For a Memorial Gift, your check should be made and addressed to K A Θ Foundation, 1580 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill. 60201.

Centennial "Losts"

1. Does anyone know the whereabouts of our 1913-15 Grand President, Ruth Haynes Carpenter? 2. Letters are being sent to all relatives of Theta founders. If you are a relative and do not receive a letter, let us know. 3. We need copies of the 1946 Kite issued at the Golden Jubilee Convention, Pasadena.

New Alumnæ Chapter

Betty Larimore Harlow, Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma, describes the launching of the new Northern Virginia Alumnæ Chapter as an "exciting new adventure." Sixty-one Thetas attended the installation, April 13, 1969, with 52 Thetas, most of whom were former members of the Fairlington-Parkfairfax and Northern Virginia Alumnæ Clubs, signing the charter. VIP's present and participating in the ceremonies were Jean Melnick Buckmaster, AP, District XVII; Patricia Fowell Pratt, member-at-large on Grand Council; Henrietta Gremsgard Stone, president of the Washington, D.C. chapter. Says Mrs. Harlow further, "We are planning to work with D.C. through this year, putting out a joint directory, having a joint fund-raising project and a joint Founders' Day."

75-Year Thetas

Twenty still-living Thetas have received 75-year pansy pins. These are also eligible:

Clara Lynn Fitch, 96th initiate of Kappa, Kansas, Berkeley, Calif.

Maud Showers Myers, 211th initiate of Beta, Indiana, Bloomington, Ind.

Isobel Noble, 8th initiate of Delta chapter at University of Illinois, Wichita, Kansas.

In addition, the Evanston-North Shore Alumnæ Chapter has honored another 75-year Theta, Dorothy Anderson Harper of Evanston, 86th initiate at Epsilon, Wooster, and at 97 the oldest living alumna of Wooster College. At a special ceremony Phyllis Ann Stevens McGuire, alumnæ president (l. in picture), showed and later presented the Centennial Charm to Mrs. Harper as Elinor Foster McLaughlin, Tau, Northwestern, looked on. Mrs. Harper, initiated in 1891, is still active, particularly in arts and crafts, and recently completed three 1200-pattern spreads. She and her husband spend the winter each year in Florida, as she says, with "a gang of their friends."—MILDRED STRONG BEAN.

Theta Travelers

New traveling secretaries are (l. to r. above) Diane Zimmerman and Betsy Currier. Diane is a Theta from Beta Nu, Florida State, has a degree in government, was active on campus in Garnet Key, Angel Flight, as a dormitory VP, Supreme Court Justice. She is in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Betsy is from Delta Iota, Puget Sound, graduated in elementary education, was a member of Mortar Board, Spurs, and was a dorm counselor. Both girls held Theta chapter offices. Betsy was Delta Iota's "Theta of the Year." Betsy has lived in Spain; Diane has studied at Florence, Italy. Picture was taken in front of University of Oklahoma Kappa Alpha Theta house at 1969 Leadership Conference in Oklahoma City.

Former Grand Treasurer of Theta (1940-48), Pauline Brannock Moore, Alpha Mu, Missouri, was chosen Omaha's 1969 Panhellenic Woman of the Year, an honor earned in competition with some of the most outstanding women in Omaha, representing the 21 sorority alumnae groups in that city. Further, Pauline merited a full two-page story in the Omaha Sun telling of her activities, both for Theta and locally for charitable organizations, these activities, as the author of the article said, making a "list as long as your arm!"

Honors

At a recent awards dinner held by the Washington Press Women in Seattle, 82-year-old Olga Todd Gay, Alpha Sigma, Washington State, was given a Torchbearer award honoring her 20-year career as publisher of the weekly newspaper, the Prosser Record Bulletin.

One of Akron, Ohio's ten women of achievement for 1968 is Kathryn Motz Hunter, Gamma deuteron, Ohio Wesleyan, so named by the Akron Beacon Journal for her program on continuing education for women at Akron University.

The title of Citizen of the Year was awarded in early 1969 to Nancy Wilmuth Shvemar, Beta Theta, Idaho, by the Americanism committee of the Junior Women's Club of San Bernardino, Calif., where she lives. As fourth vice-president and program chairman of the club she has actively sponsored political forums in the community.

Dr. Mary Woods Bennett, Omega, California-Berkeley, has been given the Distinguished Alumna Award from Anna Head School, the first such presentation to be made. Dr. Bennett is provost and dean of the faculty at Mills College, Oakland, Calif., and a member of the board of trustees at Anna Head. Her distinguished career in education spans 35 years.

As Bernie Bierman, longtime great football coach at the University of Minnesota, and his wife, Clara McKenzie Bierman, Upsilon, Minnesota, decided to retire to California from their St. Paul home, dinner parties honoring them broke out all over the place. Clara was honored specifically at a joint meeting of the St. Paul and Minneapolis Theta Alumnae Chapters for her more than 30 years as Minnesota State Chairman for Theta, her presidency of the St. Paul chapter and service to Theta in other jobs too numerous to mention.

A one-man show at the Hayloft Gallery in Norwich, Conn., is only one of the honors which have come to artist Stephanie Wenner Highborg, Eta, Michigan, who lives in New London, Conn. This past summer Lord & Taylor exhibited her oil paintings in the art gallery of their Fifth Avenue store.

Eleven years working in the U. S. government on the Law of Outer Space culminated in October 1968 when Eilene Stack Galloway, Alpha Iota, Washington-St. Louis and Alpha Beta, Swarthmore, was awarded the Andrew G. Haley Gold Medal for contributions to the law of outer space by the International Institute of Space Law of the International Astronautical Federation.

The art of collage, pasting various items on a single surface, is at its best in the hands of Grete Holst Evans, Eta, Michigan, or so thinks the Carnegie Institute Museum of Art in Pittsburgh which honored her with a one-man exhibition, "Pulse of Earth," recently.

In The Press

A Theta husband is the owner of Majestic Prince, the horse which won the 1969 Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. At the time of the Derby, however, Frank McMahon had the flu and sent his wife into the winner's circle where Majestic Prince was blanketed with roses. Newsweek reported that asked how she and her husband felt at having the winner, Betty Betz McMahon, Delta, Illinois, replied; "We feel like we're heading for the moon!"

The name of Leigh Taylor-Young, Tau, Northwestern, is appearing in the press more and more these days, whether it is about her role in the forthcoming movie, The Adventurers, or when she visited the location of the Twentieth Century-Fox movie, The Games, in Rome to see her husband, actor Ryan O'Neal.

Once again the name of the late Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, Psi, Wisconsin, has come into the news as restoration of her home at Cross Creek goes on. Under the direction of Mary Janes Hughes Harper, Alpha Theta, Texas, and Alpha Gamma, Ohio State, of the Camellia Circle of the Gainesville, Fla., Garden Club, restoration of the grounds as they were when Mrs. Rawlings lived there is underway.

On The Go

Saigon is the home base for Anne Louise Morrissey, Iota, Cornell, who was the April 1969 bride of Wendell S. Merick, Saigon bureau chief for U.S. News and World Report. Anne Louise, for her part, is a news producer for the American Broadcasting Co.

Criss-crossing the country on lecture tours is Janet ("Nan") Tillson Birmingham, Phi, Stanford, who talks on cooking and entertaining. She is the wife of Stephen Birmingham, best-selling author of The Right People and Our Crowd.

Off to Peru this past summer was Teresa Robertson, Gamma Omicron, New Mexico, now a student at the University of Kansas. She was sent by The Experiment in Internat'l. Living.

President Nixon has seen to it that one Theta husband will remain on the go when he tapped John A. Hannah to head the Agency for International Development. Hannah has been president of Michigan State University since 1941, is married to Sarah Shaw, Beta Pi, Michigan State.

(L.) Agnes DeMille, Beta Xi, Calif.-Los Angeles, choreographer and author, was 1969 commencement speaker at Ball State University, Muncie, Ind. (Center) When Kent Frizzell of Wichita was elected attorney general of Kansas his chief campaign booster was his wife, Shirley Piatt Frizzell, Kappa, Kansas. (R.) Among 100 girls in the Red Cross Supplemental Recreational Activities Overseas (SRAO) program in South Vietnam is Sue Ellen Hunter, Beta Kappa, Drake, who is on a year's tour of duty.

Books By Theta Authors

Nobody Scares a Porcupine by Jean Horton Berg. Westminster Press, 1969. $3.75.

What better way to entice a reader to think than to pose questions that are in need of an answer? This is just what Jean Berg does in her newest children's book (3-8 age group). Believing that children appreciate stories which develop a meaningful problem, Mrs. Berg urges her readers to discover with the forest animals just what it is to be courageous. Many of the animals proudly boast of being brave, yet they show fear. Porcupine is not afraid, yet is he the only brave one? In situations that might have already been experienced by the reader, the author not only admits that fear exists, she justifies the need for a certain amount of fear. We wonder, can someone be afraid and still be courageous? Just what is courage?

The illustrations, while giving the book a whimsical tone, work in skillful conjunction with the prose to draw us to Tiny Mouse's summary. "Yes," says the tiny creature, "being brave is doing what you ought to, even when you're scared." The presentation is quite convincing in its development of this solution.

The Author—Jean Horton Berg, a member of Theta from Beta Eta, Pennsylvania, is a wife, mother, housekeeper and writer, and is also a regular contributor to the children's section of the Christian Science Monitor. She has written over 21 books for children, started writing for her own three when they were young.

—WENDY WILKERSON MORRIS.

Kim Fashions a Career by Dorothy Bramble Shaftner. G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1968. $3.75.

Like most teenagers, Kim Merryman has her ups and downs. Some of her problems she brings on herself, such as her propensity for being a little too frank, a little too obviously ambitious. Others come to her by circumstance, such as the illness that prevents Kim's father from continuing to send her to college. Since Kim is intent on a career as a fashion buyer she sees, and rightly so, the temporary position as a stock girl in one of San Francisco's best department stores as a step toward fulfillment of this goal as well as a means for finishing her education. How Kim matures and begins to understand that success means lots of hard work and patience makes an absorbing story.

Even if a girl were not especially interested in a fashions career, this book would still make worthwhile reading for its insights into the almost adult mind of a young girl and for its vivid and fascinating picture of life in San Francisco.

The Author—Dorothy Bramble Shaftner is a graduate of Ohio State where she was very active in Theta. She now lives in Palo Alto, Calif., where she combines her fashion and literary talents. She has been a fashion coordinator as well as reporter, and writes short stories and articles.—MIRIAM BAUER PEIRCE.

The Image Collector VIII by Marjorie Duryee. House of Falmouth, Inc., Portland, Me.

Marjorie Duryee's growth as a poet is evident in the eighth of her proposed ten-volume series—The Image Collector. For content she concentrates upon momentarily apprehended fragments of experience. Her choice of subject matter suggests that to the imaginative mind all experience has significance. In fact, some of her most successfully evocative poems give life to the seemingly trivial—the sharply critical words of a Dutchman on an Amsterdam tram, mowing the lawn after dark, her Labrador puppy, the aroma of a fine cigar. The range of her topics is wide, for she draws upon her extensive travels and upon the historical past as well as upon her domestic experiences.

The poems in The Image Collector VIII are written in disciplined free verse with a knowledgeable choice of words.

Her language is vigorous and often surprising.

All in all this book is a gentle and pleasant assortment of verses which help the reader to a richer appreciation of his environment—both physical and social—and of life's small details.

The Author—Marjorie Duryee, a Theta from Alpha Lambda, Washington, has traveled extensively, is an artist as well as a poet.—LUCY HUTCHISON VOSMEK.

On City Streets: An Anthology of Poetry. Selected by Nancy Lerrick. M. Evans/J. B. Lippincott Co., 1968. $4.95.

Guided by the requests of 100 inner city children, Nancy Lerrick has compiled a modern anthology of favorite poetry of today's urban child, a vibrant collection that reflects the sounds, sights and people of the city. (For ages 10-14.)

Included are poems by Langston Hughes, Walt Whitman, Carl Sandburg, Gwendolyn Brooks and many, many others. Some poems, such as Sandburg's "Prayers of Steel" and Whitman's "The Greatest City," capture the compelling vitality of the city. Many others tell of despair and loneliness and of being black and poor. This tragic theme is revealed in Frances Park's "A Sad Song About Greenwich Village," in Langston Hughes' "Mother To Son" and in Evelyn Hunt's "Taught Me Purple." In a lighter mood, the children and Miss Lerrick have chosen Eve Merriam's "Alligator On the Escalator" and John Holmes' "Rhyme Of Rain." In all, the imagery and the crisp, skillful, tender use of language provide an exciting reading experience. The book is also excellent for sharing aloud.

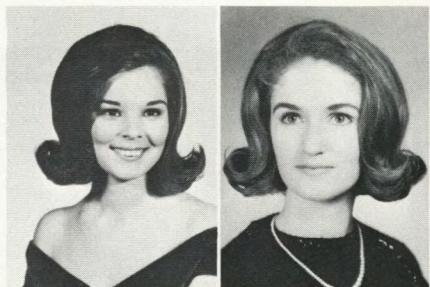

The Author—Nancy Lerrick, Alpha Delta, Goucher, has been a teacher, a book and magazine editor and author of A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading, A Parent's Guide to Children's Education, A Teacher's Guide to Children's Books. She is also editor of several anthologies of poetry for children. Currently, Dr. Lerrick is adjunct professor of education at Lehigh University.—KATHRYN MOORE RING.

COLLEGIATE HONORS

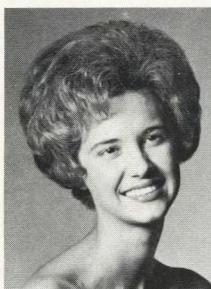

Not only "mighty like a rose," but it IS a rose for each new Mortar Board member at the May Fete at Whitman College. Pat Morris (r.), 1968-69 president of Theta at Whitman, is proud to tap her Theta sister, Sharon Ann Griffith, for the leadership group. Sharon is current president of Theta. Tapping ceremonies take place in college amphitheater. Photograph by William Lilley comes to the Theta Magazine courtesy of the Whitman News Service.

Theta Lips Are Smiling

♦ Uninvited guest! Ask those two sophomore roommates at South Dakota about their guest which wakened them several nights in a row with noises like throwing rocks on the roof. The guest turned out to be a 3-inch bat. Say the Thetas, the welcome mat is not out for the return of this uninvited guest.

♦ Uninvited guests! Sometimes they can be great fun, as when TV star, Pat Paulsen, appearing at a local nightclub, turned up unexpectedly at the Theta house at Michigan State while the girls were eating Sunday dinner. Pat caused great excitement before he sped away in his Model A Ford emblazoned with his presidential campaign slogan, "We Cannot Stand Pat."

Theta Lips Are Smiling

♦ Uninvited guests! Last March the Thetas at North Dakota State were sure they entertained a ghost on the roof as they listened to "thump, thump," noises overhead. But a brave housemother diagnosed the reason for the noises: the Theta house was announcing the arrival of freezing weather with crackling sounds!

♦ Uninvited guests! Thetas at Washburn encourage their guest, a ghost known as Mr. Mullhullen, who supposedly once owned the small house they occupy since their former home was destroyed by a tornado. Mr. Mullhullen is blamed for all the odd things that happen in the house—when possessions are lost, when food disappears mysteriously, when lights which should be turned off are left on. "Ah," sigh the Thetas, "Mr. Mullhullen, you did it again!"

Guess now who holds thee?/“Death,” I said. But there
The silver answer rang,—“Not/Death, but Love.”

Miss Theta of 1970 and Mrs. Theta of 1870 meet at last! Where? At the Leadership Conference. What did they talk about? Building pride in Theta. Did they agree? Indeed. Was there any generation gap? Of course not. In fact, the feeling goes deep that 1970 and 1870 are both good years for Theta. Just ask Kay Rosenberger, president, Beta Theta, Idaho, (I.) and Alumnae V. P. JoAnn Thompson about all that harmony.
